

Leslie Holbrook

Ms. Leslie Holbrook is Director, Worldwide Business Technology for Pfizer Inc. where she is responsible for the Risk Management application portfolio, consisting of solutions for physical security, business continuity, and environmental health and safety. Ms. Holbrook has been in IT for over twenty years, and during the last six has focused on demographics and identity management processes as they pertain to both Physical and Information Security, developing overarching solutions for a converged environment. She holds a BA from Smith College.

