

Biographical Sketch – Jeffrey T. Fowler – CPS, CAS, CHS-III

Jeffrey T. Fowler, CPS, CAS, CHS-III, is the Director, Osprey Protective Services, Inc. a security consulting firm in Missouri. He is the “Mentor - Security Management Degree Programs” at American Military University. He is a retired military police officer with more than 20 years of service in the Army. His accomplishments include a tour of duty as commander of the U.S. Military Academy Military Police Company in West Point, New York, and director for security of Miesau Army Depot in Germany.

Presentation Overview - The Role of Education in Security Management

The presentation provides an overview of the importance of initial and continuing education for security professionals in today’s global venue. Additionally, the role of online education is discussed as well as the importance of four key elements:

- Experience
- Formal Education
- Professional Certifications
- Continuing Education